LOCAL AND COUNTY NEWS.

FOR CONSTABLE.
We are authorized to announce Thos. H. Harris as a candidate for Constable of Bedford township, at the ensuing election.

Wm. A. Carr of New Hope dropped in see us Monday.

Dr. J. C. Goodrich is here and ready to attend to any work in the dental line.

Mr. Fred Wenkle, of Louisiana, made us a pleasant call last Saturday.

Mr. E. D. Walton will speak on temperance, at Snow Hill, Saturday night.

Hand & Jackson's store is crowded with customer's every day. Low prices will draw trade.

A good attendance is expected at Hubbard school house Saturday night.

Let constables see that there are ballot-boxes at all the precincts, as they are required to do according to law.

Hand & Jackson will sell you more goods for less money than any other house in the county. It will pay you to look through their stock.

Mrs. Wallace Wheeler and her sister, Mrs. Fulkerson, of St. Charles, are visiting relatives and friends in this place.

Mr. Jas. A. Ball, of near Flint Hill, is stopping at the Laclede, receiving medical treatment from Dr. Hunt.

Howard S. Parker will speak at Hubbard school house, Clark township, next Saturday night.

For the Best Box, Parlor or Cook stove at lowest prices, call on RUSSELL & CAISON.

The best Overcoat (at the price $6.50), to be found in the market at Hand & Jackson's.

E. J. Rice, photographer, has removed to rooms next door north of A. B. Ellis' grocery store, and is now prepared for business. Call and give him a trial.

The eminent and eloquent Bishop Ryan will lecture at Chain-of-Rocks on Nov. 6th.

We are under many obligations to local correspondents for their valuable services. Gentlemen, please continue your favors.

We had the pleasure of a call from Mrs. M. J. Ricks last Friday, who kindly presented us some of the finest yellow bell flower apples we ever saw. Many thanks.

Ben. W. Wheeler and wife returned from St. Louis last Wednesday. Mrs. W. is recovering as rapidly as could be expected.

It is said that 20,000 bushels of wheat have been purchased at Prairieville, at from 75 to 84 cents per bushel, and shipped north on the Short Line road.

We learn from Mr. T. D. Wilkinson that the sugar cane in his section was considerably damaged by the frost of last Friday night week. This is now an important crop in our county.

HAND & JACKSON.

We presume that our readers have noticed the announcement of Mr. Thos. H. Harris as a candidate for constable of this township. Mr. Harris is well known to our people as an intelligent, reliable and industrious citizen. His qualifications for the position will not be questioned. If elected, we believe he will make an efficient officer.

Prof. E. M. Wollack and family left for Louisiana, Mo., last Friday. Prof. W. will take charge of a large music class organized by him when on a visit there about a week ago. We noticed a list of the patrons, and recognized the names of many old acquaintances, the very best citizens of our former home. The Professor is thoroughly qualified as an instructor, and is a gentleman of fine social quality. We wish him success in his new field of labor. The Professor wishes us to say that he feels grateful for patronage and attentions of our citizens while sojourning here.

No one can say that the times are too hard and money too scarce to buy goods at C. M. HAMILTON'S
Cheap Cash House!

There was a "housefull" at the Murphy meeting at Slaven's Chapel Sunday evening, the 20th inst. R. D. Walton addressed the meeting, and, as usual, made a good speech. Thos. H. Harris and M. Sedlacek each made a short speech. Mr. Sedlacek gave his views upon the charity portion of the pledge motto. Mr. H. urged upon the meeting the importance of keeping up the interest in this movement. The officers to serve for the next six months were elected—John R. Britton, president; J. W. Slaven, 1st vice-president; Hugh Lowry, secretary. There are 150 members in this union, and six persons signed the pledge at this meeting.

HAND & JACKSON.

Mr. Elias Norton's big dog has but little affection for candidates. At least this inference may be drawn from his violent attack upon Mr. Thos. H. Harris. When this gentleman was passing in the rear of the store, Monday morning, the vicious animal laid hold of him, threw him down and inflicted a severe bite upon the calf of one of his legs. Mr. Harris gave the alarm and was rescued by Mr. Norton.

Now is the time to get a No. 1 Wagon F. W. Harbaum will take Oats or Corn for pay.

Mrs. Eliza Elum, an aged lady of Clark township, while getting out of her wagon in front of Norton & Harlan's store, on Monday, fell heavily to the ground, receiving a severe shock which made her quite sick for a time. Mr. Hand went to her relief and assisted her to her store. She was not seriously hurt.

FINE MILLINERY.

Mrs. Buswell has just opened her stock of millinery, consisting of the cheapest to the most expensive goods in that line, to which she invites the attention of the public. She hopes to secure the services of a dress maker soon.

Hand & Jackson will pay the highest market price for Dried Fruit, Chickens, Eggs, Yarn, etc.

Mr. Richard Wells of Anbrun was in town Tuesday. He says that Mrs. Wells who was stricken with paralysis last Feb. has recovered the power of walking about, but has no use of one arm.

NEW MILLINERY STORE.

Mrs. Trail and Miss Mollie Wells have opened a new millinery store in the room formerly occupied by Miss Shultz, up stairs, adjoining the old stand of C. W. Parker & Co. They cordially invite all the ladies of Troy and the surrounding country to call and examine their stock of late style hats and fashionable trimmings. They must be seen to be appreciated.

It was ordered by the Court that the Troy and Weight City road constitute the line between the Hubbard school house precinct and the Linn's Mill precinct, those inhabitants residing east of said road to vote at the Hubbard school house, and those west of said road at Linn's Mill.

Hand & Jackson carry the largest stock of goods to be found in the county.

Col. John E. Hutton and Mr. Chas. E. Peers failed to meet their appointments at New Hope and this place. County Attorney Dunn spoke to a fair audience at the former place, and brings favorable news as to the spirit of Democracy in that region.

Mr. McIlriegal of the City Bakery will make table jellies and whipped creams of all varieties on short notice. 37-m

Editor Herald: "Rambler" had the pleasure of an invitation to a seat behind a spanking team of sorrels, by the urbane, courteous, dry, crusty, lurking humorously, pithily pointed, perfected perfection of goodly good fellows, F. C. Cake, who kindly proffered to deposit us in staid old Auburn, "The lovely village of the pain," immortalized by one of our greatest poets.

Davy handled the reins with admirable dexterity, and by him sat Prince Albert King Cake, whose canine eminence was to supply a hiatus—the Saturdays of a school master's life, and to reconcile the sentiment of the following:

"The school master rages in want of more pay.
He swears he will have it or else go away.
Four weeks make a month, leaving Saturdays out,
And here the school master goes strutting about."

Here's the appeasement:
And for fear that on some morn that Franky might run,
He prudently took him a dog; and a gun.

We renewed many old acquaintances and formed some pleasant new ones, among whom were Messrs. Finley, of the firm of Finley & Gladney, Dr. McKay, Wilson Ellis, Williams, Shannon, Balston and others; the Teagues, in whom years I knew, I was glad to meet.

We were kindly invited to visit the schools of Prof. Avery, graduates of the State Institute at Columbia. The methods of instruction so pre-eminently adapted to the advancement of youth, are so thorough and systematic, the discipline so exacting, that we were in a measure prepared to observe the proficiency with which two large classes, one of arithmetic, the other algebra, acquitted themselves.

The community is fortunate in securing the services of two young gentlemen so eminently qualified as they; and we congratulate the Professors on the many manifestations of their appreciation.

F. W. Harbaum does all kinds of repairing in the wood and iron line on shortest notice.

We give some local notices this week of Mr. Graff's business. He is well known as a polite, affable gentleman in business. Look out for his display advertisement next week.

All persons indebted to Woolfolk & Hand, either by note or account, will please come forward and settle, and oblige,
S. R. WOOLFOLK.

LOUISVILLE SPRINKLER.

Mrs. Tony Cleiser returned, Friday, from a protracted visit to Louisiana, her old home.

Mrs. Ned Huntsman is absent on a visit to Louisiana.

John Reynolds, Esq., of near Clarksville, is spending a few days in this vicinity.

Dr. Salmons has been absent several days, near Millwood.

Miss Lottie Young is visiting in Curryville.

Miss Laura Fleener is visiting in New Hope.

James Blackwell and Mrs. Bullinger were married on the evening of the 17th. J. Frank Young has turned out twelve hundred gallons of sorghum molasses this season. He has had twelve years experience in this line, and makes the finest article this county affords.

Sixty one scholars are now enrolled in our public school, in charge of Mr. David Duncan and Miss Lydia Estes.

Miss Emma Estes is teaching again in Wm. Gillman's district.

We don't know who, if any, oppose Thos. H. Harris for constable in old Bedford, but feel confident that a no more worthy and competent gentleman will perform the duties of that office.

It would take us some time to express all we think and feel in connection with the withdrawal of Mr. T. D. Fisher from the field of labor on which, during nearly twelve years, he has illustrated the qualities of a first-class citizen, an unwavering devotion to the best interests of the people, a frank and manly independence of character and hewing to the line in journalistic duties, without fear, favor or affection, that give him an honorable prominence in the history of the county. Our appreciation of his merits dates back to times that tried men's souls, when indifferent to conditions of fortune and regardless of personal consequences he rushed into the bloody conflict with a heroic devotion to the rights and liberties of his countrymen. Through four long years of privation, hardship and suffering, whether in camp, on the march or in the red rain of battle, he was as true as steel and a gentleman at all hazards. His removal from among us will be regretted by many warm friends. His old commander and constant friend, who pens this, would say more, but could not say less. With a heart-born tear right in the eye that has followed his career through seventeen years, my tongue falters, Theodore, good-bye. Whatever my fate may be, And Time alone that fate can tell, May you be happy, blessed and free From Earth's most hurtful ills, Farewell Oct. 21th.

Go to Christian Graff's new store and call for what you want in the grocery line. You will find him accommodating in manner and reasonable in prices.

To the Editor of the Herald: Sir—I understand that it is being circulated by certain characters, who desire to injure me and to enhance their own political prospects, that I am working privately against some of the Democratic nominees, particularly Capt. T. R. Reid, candidate for circuit clerk. I have said or done very little during the canvass, except in public speeches, and certainly nothing to the detriment of any Democratic nominee; my whole policy has been to exert every influence to elect the entire ticket. Capt. Reid was nominated by a majority of 770 popular votes, has the endorsement of the party for honesty and efficiency, and ought, by all means, to be elected. I have not been able to neglect my business to make a canvass of the whole county, but have spoken in the localities where I believed the most good could be effected and in every place have urged, both privately and publicly the necessity of Democratic voting for the Democratic straight ticket, and especially for the nominees of the offices of representative, circuit clerk and treasurer, as these will probably be more hotly contested than any of the rest, and any man who asserts to the contrary I pronounce unequivocally, a malicious slanderer. Very respectfully,
HOWARD S. PARKER.

TO FARMERS AND PLANTERS.

The subscriber is prepared to dig cisterns, wells, ponds, ditches for drainage, and in fact, all kinds of earth work, at very low prices. By permission I would most respectfully refer to the following gentlemen, for whom I have worked: Dr. J. J. McElwee, P. B. Clark, B. H. Womack, Geo. W. Porter, J. E. Cummings, J. B. Jeter and A. L. Gilliland.
Wm. CULTON,
Mackville, Mo.

The addition to Dr. East's drug house is now nearly completed. It consists of two stories, each 51 by 21 feet. The lower room will be used for storing heavy goods. It is suggested that the upper room will make an excellent dancing hall. James Lamanah and Pope Ward executed the brick work, and L. C. Wright the wood work.

Take your oats or corn to F. W. Harbaum and get a new wagon.

Mrs. Mary J. Shaw, of Louisiana, and Miss Anna Rosser, of Prairieville, are visiting the family of Mr. E. Norton.

HARNESS—SADDLERY.—I have associated with me John Kumbars, late of T. W. Withrow's shop. He has had about ten years' experience in saddle making, and understands his business thoroughly. Our stock of saddles, harness, etc., is all of our own make. Will sell it as cheap as St. Louis wholesale work. Give us a call and satisfy yourselves.
N. SEDLACEK.

F. W. Harbaum is willing to do an exchange business; will exchange a wagon for corn or oats.

DENTISTRY.

Dr. E. L. Sydnor is prepared to do all kinds of Dental Work as low as the lowest. Guarantees satisfaction or money refunded. 16oct-11

HEATING STOVES & COOK STOVES.

The largest assortment ever before offered in the county can now be seen at the Hardware store of B. S. Crews, and at prices that will please the closest buyers. Be sure to call when in Troy, and be convinced that there is money and labor saved in substituting them for fire places.
